

Dear Parishioners

A Catholic group is inviting Christians across the UK to place a light in the window on 31 October as a sign to passers-by that they are a Christian household. The initiative Night of Light is the inspiration of Damian Stayne, who explained: "The Night of Light is an international initiative to reclaim Halloween as a joyful Christian celebration. Halloween ('All Hallows Eve') is the vigil (beginning) of the Feast of All Saints - the feast in which Catholics celebrate the glory of God in His saints, the victory of light over darkness in the lives of God's holy ones in heaven. Jesus is the 'Light of the World'. The saints lived by that light, and became a beacon in their own generation. Everyone is called by Jesus to live out this vocation - to be the 'Light of the world' for others today."

Halloween is now the biggest commercial festival after Christmas and Easter and, although I don't believe it to be in any way sinister, it is a rather dark, depressing and silly import from the States. Following Pope Benedict's visit perhaps now an opportune time to remind our children of Halloween's true significance. The celebration of feast days is an important part of our Catholic culture. So, this evening why not do something to make your faith respectfully seen? Light a candle or tee light in the window -- perhaps even alongside an image of Christ. This year we have left it a little late to organise more, but tee lights are available at the back of church (with a donation box to cover costs). Take one and put it in your window tonight. Place it on something safe that is not flammable and if friends or neighbours ask you what is happening -- tell them about the Feast of all Saints! I'll put this on the Forum agenda so we may plan for next year. (More ideas and resources to celebrate the night can be found on nightoflight.org)

The next Forum meeting is in Sabden Parish Hall on Wednesday at 7.30pm. Again we have a full agenda awaiting important decisions like the times of Masses in Clitheroe and Sabden, Christmas tree festival, pub carols' night and the Christingle. Other items include the hall refurbishment, next year's parish pilgrimage, proposals for Christian Unity week, a meeting for parents to discuss the faith challenges of teenage children's faith practice, introduction of some sung Latin at Mass and plenty more to make the fur fly! Happy All Saints Day.

Fr John

CAFOD Feed back on "WHO IS YOUR NEIGHBOUR" cards. In the just arrived CAFOD "CAMPAIGN UPDATE" leaflet, October issue, we read the action of 10,000 post cards to 10 Downing Street on the 10-10-10 surpassed even the increased target from 10,000 to 20,000 - WELL DONE. A big thank you to those who signed the cards pushing for a fair deal at the UN Climate Change talks in Mexico in December.

QUILT Some years ago a parish member, now deceased, made an exhibition quilt. It took 9 months to make and it was made for love with the hope that it would bring great happiness to its owners. It is made from American cotton, fully washable and uses machine Trapunto, machine quilting and some hand embroidery - apparently quite unique. The design is a traditional single Irish chain with Celtic inspired designs. We are organising "a draw" at £5 "a go". This weekend, view the quilt and enter the draw (£5) to win this beautifully crafted gift. The draw will take place at the end of the Christmas Tree Festival on 12th December.

BONUS BALL (SABDEN) The bonus ball winner is no 12 Violet Robson. Winners please collect winnings from Carol or Harry.
