

Dear Parishioners

Prior to the Jubilee celebrations Pope Benedict sent this message to the Queen.

"I write to offer my warmest congratulations to Your Majesty on the happy occasion of the Diamond Jubilee of your reign. During the past sixty years you have offered to your subjects and to the whole world an inspiring example of dedication to duty and a commitment to maintaining the principles of freedom, justice and democracy, in keeping with a noble vision of the role of a Christian monarch.

I retain warm memories of the gracious welcome accorded to me by Your Majesty at Holyroodhouse in Edinburgh at the beginning of my Apostolic Visit to the United Kingdom in September 2010, and I renew my thanks for the hospitality that I received throughout those four days. Your personal commitment to cooperation and mutual respect between the followers of different religious traditions has contributed in no small measure to improving ecumenical and interreligious relations throughout your realms.

Commending Your Majesty and all the Royal Family to the protection of Almighty God, I renew my heartfelt good wishes on this joyful occasion and I assure you of my prayers for your continuing health and prosperity."

Our gratitude goes to the Knights of St Columba who have kindly donated £500 towards the cost of our new glass altar. We thank them for their generosity.

Website committee please meet Wednesday at 7.30 in the Presbytery.

The Broughton Society, one of the oldest Catholic men's societies in the country has its own anthem with a verse that refers to the recitation of the Angelus in pre-Reformation England.

"And when they heard the Angelus Bell ring o'er hill and dale,
The Blacksmith stopp'd his hammer and the Thresher stopped his flail.

They doff'd their caps and cross'd their breasts with meek and pious care and never thought a moment lost when spent in fervent prayer".

Does our Angelus call you to prayer?

Fr John
