

Dear Parishioners

Father John has invited me to use the newsletter to inform you that I will be leaving my position of Headteacher at the end of the summer term, following eighteen happy, fulfilling years at St Michael & John's. From the reaction of parents and others I realise that this has come as something of a surprise and in all honesty, I have managed to surprise myself a little bit this time!

I took up the post at Easter 1995 and knew instinctively that I had arrived 'home'. Two years later when my family moved into the Ribble Valley I realised how fortunate we were to be welcomed into a close and supportive community in such a beautiful setting and I still feel that today. The eighteen years have flown by and, like so many others, I had assumed that I would see my time out at St Michael & John's and would have been happy to do so.

In recent years, some of my work has been with Salford Diocese and this has involved visiting and working with other schools. In some respects, I was forced (or permitted) to look over the parapet of my own school and two thoughts struck me. The first was that remaining in the same post for so many years, although very comfortable for me, may not always be the best thing for the school. The second was that maybe I had something else to give before retirement! It was no more than a gentle nudge every so often and one which I was usually able to dismiss and ignore. However, having grown up with the mantra which echoes in most Catholic households, 'everything happens for a reason', when the position of 'Head of the Federation of Our Lady and St Hubert with St Wulstan's' was advertised, I took a great leap of faith – and was offered the post.

I will remain a Parishioner and will continue to be part of this wonderful community. I simply wanted to tell the Parish Family of my news and to thank you for the wonderful support you have always given to the school. Please pray for the Governors as they seek to appoint a new Headteacher and perhaps say one for me as I embark on Missionary Work in Great Harwood.

Thank you,

Vincent Murray
