

Come Holy Spirit of God

Holy Spirit of Jesus Christ:

shine in our hearts,
in our society,
in the world of nature around us, in the church.

Enrich the poverty of our spirits and imaginations with the abundance of your gifts.

To the restless anxiety of our hearts, to the turmoil of our lives, bring your sweet message of peace.

Be the still point in the midst of our anxious activity, be our rest after toil, be a cool shade in life's burning heat, be the solace of our sorrows and disappointments.

Come then to us, Holy Spirit of God, send our dry roots rain.

Take possession of us to comfort and renew:

Cleanse all that is defiled in us,

Heal all that is diseased in us,

Make fruitful all that is barren in us,

Soften all that is angry and inflexible in us,

Warm all that is frigid and unloving in us,

Straighten all that is crooked and deceitful in us.

Give to all who open themselves to you the gifts of wisdom and understanding, insight and tenderness, the knowledge of the dignity of the redeemed, and the courage to live up to it.

Give them a humble reverence before the mystery of God, before the beauty and fragility of our world, and before the glory of our human nature which you fill with your presence and your power, as your living temple.

And when for each of us in death the hints and shadows of this world give way to the reality of God, be yourself the homecoming and the fulfilment of all that your presence here has taught us to hope for.

Amen
